1. Community leaders identified model to assess current available programming for children and youth in Washington County in efforts to identify gaps in programs and services that help address ongoing social issues in the community.

2. The Tourism Work Group met to brainstorm and create group work plans around tourism activities in Washington County.

3. Local representatives hosted a wrap-up meeting for the first annual Sherman’s Trail Yard Sale where other participating communities met to discuss this year’s event and brainstorm ideas for the 2012 event planned for May 5th and 6th.

4. With the help of Archway intern, Jimbo Graves, county representatives were able to identify a potential funding source for renovations of a downtown asset. They plan to apply for the funding in the fall.