Carissa DiCindio, Curator of Education, and staff members from the Georgia Museum of Art came to Hartwell to present a special program to students participating in Hart County Schools’ Bullpup Academy. They talked about folk art and helped the kids create and paint their own animal sculptures. The Bullpup Academy is an after-school enrichment program for at-risk students in grades 4-6 that is funded by a 21st Century Community Learning Center grant.