Fanning Institute Hosts Leadership Session

Fanning Institute faculty member Janet Rechtman conducted a half-day session on leadership development with the Hart County Schools System Leadership Team. The group includes leaders/administrators within the school system. Rechtman facilitated a discussion of educational leadership and the group completed and discussed the Leadership Practices Inventory and their personal leadership practices.